

208 THE MONEY STAKE OF THE TWO
HAWKINS. [^j^g:

have sustained at the Spaniards' hands heretofore. Wherefore, my humble suit unto your rfonours is to, be a mean[s] unto the Queen's Majesty that I may be by some mean*s, recompensed, as time and occasion hereafter shall serve; either by some of those Spaniards' goods stayed in these West parts, or otherwise by some furtherance from the Queen's Majesty; whereby I may the better be able to recompense myself against those nations that hath offered these wrongs.'

And I shall daily pray for the long continuance of your Honour's estates,, long to endure.

From Plymouth/the 22nd day of January,<sup>9</sup>
anno <sup>1568</sup>
[i.e.<sup>9</sup> 1569.] * -

By your Honours always to command,

WILLIAM
HAWKINS.

And further, if it shall please your Honours to have some consideration towards the poor state of our town. I assure your Honours, it is not, of itself, able to provide two hundredweight of powder, without a collection amongst ourselves : and the inhabitants very poor" besides. But to our powers, we will be found ready for the defence of the same.

The great passing of Fleets, this summer [1568], Jbefore our haven, either with fleeing out of Flanders (which GOD grant!) or otherwise the repair into Flanders out of Spain, with aid, may be a means whereby the town may be put to a great after deal: which GOD forbid! Wherefore I shall desire your Honours to consider of it.

This I thought good to advertise your Honours, for my own discharge.

By your Honours always,

WILLIAM
HAWKINS.

Addressed—

To the Right Honourable and my singular
good Lord,
the Lords of the Privy Council; give this at the Court with all speed.

Haste!              Haste!
